The Strength of Community

ags directors

Jon Arms & Chris Campolo

It is a real pleasure to be involved in the 23rd summer of the School. We very much hope that this yearbook and directory will bring back memories of learning and growth, friends and fun. If your summer here was successful, you should have a greater appreciation not only of the theoretical intricacies of a particular art or science, but also of the importance of contributing your talents and energies to the life of your community. The taxpayers of Arkansas fund AGS not merely to enrich your summer, but also to help sensitize you to your own potential for service and leadership. We're proud of your achievements. At the same time we hope that after you leave Governor's School, you'll find ways to get involved, to help others, and to develop your gifts so that they can be most valuable to you and those around you.

On behalf of the faculty and staff, we congratulate you for your participation this summer. It takes a special kind of courage to spend six weeks away from one's family and friends. We all feel privileged to have to have spent the summer thinking and learning with you. If you valued the experience we hope you will let others know, and we hope you will make time to thank your parents, teachers, and legislators for making it possible. We are proud of the tradition of Governor's School, and we hope it will continue long into the future.

Whatever your path, we wish you great happiness and success. We look forward to hearing great things.

area I

Academia & the Arts

Area I embraces instruction in the performing arts of choral music, drama, instrumental music and visual arts, and course work in the academic disciplines of English/language arts, natural science, mathematics, and social science.

Emphasis in Area I is placed on participatory learning experiences which prepare students to enter and understand the critical systems that undergird the various fields of study. To this end, students examine new, challenging, and often controversial theories, techniques, and works—all designed to challenge them to develop a critical stance based on careful scrutiny of ideas and developments within their areas of interest.

Don Baker is the Area I coordinator.

area II

General Conceptual Development

The Area II curriculum is designed to enhance conceptual development. Students are encouraged to learn more about how knowledge is acquired (epistemology) and to understand the various ways of knowing in different disciplines. In striving to increase their ability to analyze diverse perspectives on current normative issues, students gain a new appreciation for their implications. Classroom discussion then leads students to progress toward deeper levels of intellectual reflection, which enhances their ability to become better thinkers.

Mark Elrod is the Area II coordinator.

(starting from center, moving clockwise) Mark Elrod, Phillip Spivey, Chuck West, Rachel Wagner, Andy Cathcart, Steve Smith, Andy Kelso, John Walchak

area III

Personal and Social Development

Area III attempts to create an environment in which students inquire into the nature of their individual abilities and the responsibility they have to their respective communities.

Realizing that "community" is now both local and global, Area III fosters the development of both the personal and social awareness the students will need as their knowledge expands and they confront diverse world views. Using the framework of social theory, sociology, psychology, and ethics, Area III provides a forum for students to explore issues that arise in a diverse community. By stressing the importance of personal self-awareness and individual accountability along with the values of character, compassion and social responsibility, Area III encourages a deeper commitment and understanding of what it takes to create and maintain a just and compassionate community, both local and global.

Phillip Melton is the Area III coordinator.
